

Police Act, 1861

Section 30 - Regulation of Public Assemblies and Processions and Licensing of the Same

(1) The District Superintendent or Assistant District Superintendent of Police may, as occasion requires, direct the conduct of a assemblies and processions on the public roads, or in the public street or thoroughfares, and prescribe the routes by which, and the times which, such processions may pass.

(2) He may also, on being satisfied that it is intended by a persons or class of persons to convene or collect an assembly in a such road, street or thoroughfare, or to form a procession which would in the judgment of the Magistrate of the district, or of the sub-division of a district, if uncontrolled, be likely to cause a breach of the peace require by general or special notice that the persons convening collecting such assembly or directing or promoting such process) shall apply for a license.

(3) On such application being made, he may issue a license specifying the names of the licensees and defining the conditions on which alone such assembly or such procession is to be permitted to the place and otherwise giving effect to this section: Provided that in fee shall be charged on the application for, or grant of, any such license.

(4) He may also regulate the extent to which music may be use in the streets on the occasion of festivals and ceremonies.]

{ Inserted by section 11, ibid.}
