Constitution Order 14 - Supreme Court (Decrees and Orders) Enforcement Order, 1950

THE SUPREME COURT (DECREES AND ORDERS) ENFORCEMENT ORDER, 1950

C.O. 14, dated the 12th May, 1950

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of article 142 of the Constitution of India and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the President is pleased to make the following Order, namely :--

1.(1) This Order may be called the Supreme Court (Decrees and Orders) Enforcement Order, 1950.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law in force at the commencement of this Order, any decree passed or order made by the Supreme Court in the exercise of its appellate jurisdiction, including any order as to the costs of, and incidental to, any proceedings in the exercise of such jurisdiction, whether such decree or order was passed or made before or after the commencement of this Order, shall be enforceable in accordance with the provisions of law for the time being in force relating to the enforcement of decrees or orders of the Court or Tribunal from which the appeal to the Supreme Court was preferred or sought to be preferred.
