

Dourine Act, 1910

Section 8 - Powers of Veterinary Practitioner

A veterinary practitioner may--

(a) cancel any order issued under section 5, {The word and letter "clause (b)" repealed by section 3, ibid;} or

(b) if on microscopical examination {Inserted by section 4, ibid.} {or by other scientific test} he finds that any horse is affescted with dourine,--

(i) in the case of an entrire horse, cause it to be castrated,

{Substituted by section 4, ibid., for the original sub-clause.}

[(ii) in the case of a mare, with the previous sanction of such authority as the State Government may appoint in this behalf, or, if so empowered by the State Government, without such sanction, cause it to be destroyed.]
