

Emigration Act, 1983

Section 38 - Power to Give Directions

The Central Government may give directions to the Protector General of Emigrants, the registering authority, the competent authority or any Protector of Emigrants as to the carrying into execution of any provision of this Act.
