

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/650451

The ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION ACT, 1996

Section 3 - Ins. by s. 2, ibid

w.e. f. 23-10-2015). 6 (7) An arbitral award made under this Part shall be considered as a domestic award. (8) Where this Part (a) refers to the fact that the parties have agreed or that they may agree, or (b) in any other way refers to an agreement of the parties, that agreement shall include any arbitration rules referred to in that agreement. (9) Where this Part, other than clause (a) of section 25 or clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 32, refers to a claim, it shall also apply to a counterclaim, and where it refers to a defence, it shall also apply. Section 3 - to a defence to that counterclaim