Divorce Act, 1869

Section 49 - Suitsby Minors

Where the petitioner is a minor, he or she shall sue by his or her next friend to be approved by the Court; and no petition presented by a minor under this Act shall be filed until the next friend has undertaken in writing to be answerable for costs.

Such undertaking¹[] shall be filed in Court, and the next friend shall thereupon be liable in the same manner and to the same extent as if he were a plaintiff in an ordinary suit.

1.The words "shall bear a stamp of eight annas and" rep. by Act 7 of 1870, Section 2 and Schedule III.
