

Railways Act, 1989

Section 122 - Power to Make Rules in Respect of Matters in This Chapter

- (1) The Central Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Chapter.
- (2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:--
- (a) the injury to property which shall be considered serious under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 113;
 - (b) the forms of notice of accidents to be given under section 113 and the particulars of the accident such notices shall contain;
 - (c) the manner of sending the notices of accidents, including the class of accidents to be sent immediately after the accident;
 - (d) the duties of the Commissioner, railway administration, railway servants, police officers and Magistrates on the occurrence of an accident;
 - (e) the persons to whom notices in respect of any inquiry under this Chapter are to be sent, the procedure to be followed in such inquiry and the manner in which a report of such inquiry shall be prepared;
 - (f) the nature of inquiry to be made by a railway administration into the causes of an accident under section 120;
 - (g) the form and manner of sending a return of accidents by a railway administration under section 121.
