

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/241230

Arbitration Act, 1940

Rule 48 - RULE 48:

The Bench shall not ordinarily adjourn a bearing at the request of any party, except where the circumstances are beyond the control of that party and Bench is satisfied that reasons and circumstances for the adjournment are justified. While granting an adjournment, the Bench may make such orders regarding payment of costs by one or both of the parties, as it deems fit and reasonable.