

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/241234

Arbitration Act, 1940

Rule 52 - RULE 52:

The parties to the reference and any witnesses on their behalf shall subject to the provisions of any law for the time being in force:(a) submit to be examined by the Bench on oath or affirmation in relation to the matters in dispute.(b) produce before the Bench all books, deeds, papers, accounts, writings and documents in their possession or power respectively which may be required or called for by the Beach.(c) comply with the requirements of the Bench as to the production or selection of samples, and(d) generally do all other things which during the pendeacy of the reference the Beach may require.