

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/241240

Arbitration Act, 1940

Rule 58 - RULE 58:

The language of the arbitration proceedings shall be English. If any documents filed by a party are in a language other than English, the party filing such document shall simultaneously furnish an English translation of the documents. The Registrar may make arrangements for the services of an interpreter on the request of one or more of the parties and costs thereof shall form part of the costs of the reference.