

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/241252

Arbitration Act, 1940

Rule 70 - RULE 70:

A party shall in all things abide by and obey the award which shall be binding on the parties and their respective representatives, notwithstanding the death of any party before or after the making of the award and such death shall not operate as revocation of the submission or reference.