

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/448670

Cantonments Act, 1924

Section 279 - RIGHT OF APPELLANT TO BE HEARD - No appeal shall be decided under this Chapter unless the appellant has been heard, or

No. 26). Act 15 of 1983.- This clause seeks to amend section 283 of the Act relating to penalty for breach of bye-law. Existing section 283 is being renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof. Under sub-clause (a) the penalties prescribed therein for breach of bye-laws are being enhanced due to escalation in prices , Sub-clause (b) seeks to insert new sub-section (2) to the effect that any bye-law framed by the Board may provide that a person contravening the same would be required to remedy so far as lies within his power, the damage or mischief, if any, caused by such contravention.- Gaz. of ind., 9-7-1982, pt., II, S. 2, Exi., p. 59 (No. 26).