

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/448837

Cantonments Act, 2006

Section 148 - Removal of noxious vegetation: The Chief Executive Officer may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee, or

SECTION 148: Removal of noxious vegetation: The Chief Executive Officer may, by notice in writing, require the owner, lessee, or occupier of any land in the cantonment to clear away and remove any thick or noxious vegetation or undergrowth which appears to him to be injurious to health or offensive to persons residing in the neighbourhood.