Code of Civil Procedure 1908

Section 123 - CONSTITUTION OF RULE COMMITTEES IN CERTAIN STATES

1) A Committee, to be called the Rule Committee shall be constituted at the town which is the usual place of sitting of each of the High Courts referred to in section 122. (2) Each such Committee shall consist of the following persons, namely:-- (a) three Judges of the High Court established at the town at which such Committee is constituted, one of whom at least has served as a District Judge or a Divisional Judge for three years-- (b) two legal practitioners enrolled in that Court, (c) a Judge of a Civil Court subordinate to the High Court. (3) The members of each such Committee shall be appointed by the High Court, who shall also nominate one of their members to be President: (4) Each member of any such Committee shall hold office for such period as may be prescribed by the High Court in this behalf; and whenever any member retires, resigns, dies or ceases to reside in the State in which the Committee was constituted, or becomes incapable of acting as a member of the Committee, the said High Court may appoint another person to be a member in his stead. (5) There shall be a Secretary to each such Committee, who shall be appointed by the High Court and shall receive such remuneration as may be provided in this behalf by the State Government.
