

Cantonments Act, 1924

Section 44 - Power to Make Regulations

(1) A Board may make regulations consistent with this Act and with the rules made there under to provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:--

- (a) the time and place of its meetings;
- (b) the manner in which notice of the meeting shall be given;
- (c) the conduct of proceedings at meetings and the adjournment of meetings;
- (d) the custody of the common seal of the Board and the purposes for which it shall be used; and
- (e) the appointment of committees for any purpose and the determination of all matters relating to the constitution and procedure of such committees, and the delegation to such committees, subject to any conditions which the Board thinks fit to impose, of any of the powers or duties of the Board under this Act other than a power to make regulations or bye-laws.

(2) No regulation made under clause (e) of sub-section (1) shall take effect until it has been approved by the¹[Central Government].

(3) No regulation made under this section shall take effect until it has been published in such manner as the¹[Central Government] may direct.

²(4) Every regulation made under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the regulation or both Houses agree that the regulation should not be made, the regulation shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such-modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that regulation.]

1. Substituted by the A.O. 1937, for "L.G.".

2. Inserted by Act 15 of 1983, section 29 w.e.f. 1-10-1983.
