

Cantonments Act, 1924

Section 182 - Compensation

(1) No compensation shall be claimable by any person for any damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the refusal of the¹[Board] of sanction to the erection of any building or in respect of any direction issued by it under sub-section (1) of section 181.

(2) The¹[Board] shall make compensation to the owner of any building for any actual damage or loss sustained by him in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building or of its requiring any land belonging to him to be added to the street:

Provided that the¹[Board] shall not be liable to make any compensation in respect of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building which for a period of three years or more immediately preceding such refusal has not been in existence or has been unfit for human habitation.

1. Substituted by Act 24 of 1936, section 69, for "Cantonment Authority".
