Cantonments Act, 1924

Section 198 - Public Markets and Slaughter-houses

---

(1) A[1][Board] may provide and maintain, either within or without the cantonment, public markets and public slaughterhouses, to such number as it thinks fit, together with stalls, shops, sheds, pens and other buildings or conveniences for the use of persons carrying on trade or business in or frequenting such markets or slaughter-houses, and may provide and maintain in any such market buildings, places, machines, weights, scales and measures for the weighment or measurement of goods sold therein.

(2) When such market or slaughter-house is situated beyond cantonment limits, the[1][Board] shall have the same power for the inspection and proper regulation of the same as if it were situated within those limits.

(3) The[1][Board] may at any time, by public notice, close any public market or public slaughter-house or any part thereof.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorise the establishment of a public market or public slaughter-house within the limits of any area administered by any local authority other than the[1] [Board], without the permission of such local authority or otherwise than on such conditions as such local authority may approve.
