

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/345677

Dourine Act, 1910

Section 12 - APPEALS - Any owner may, within two months from the date of a decision undersection 10-, appeal against such decision

SECTION 12: APPEALS - Any owner may, within two months from the date of a decision undersection 10-, appeal against such decision to the committee constituted in that behalf by rules made undersection 11-, and the decision of such committee shall be final."We have altered the period allowed for appeal from three months to two. It is important that there shall be no undue delay in the presentation of appeals."-S.C.R.