Indian Contract Act, 1872

Section 48 - Application for Performance on Certain Day to Be at Proper Time and Place

When a promise is to be performed on a certain day, and the promisor has not undertaken to perform it without application by the promisee, it is the duty of the promisee to apply for performance at a proper place and within the usual hours of business.

Explanation. The question "what is a proper time and place" is, in each particular case, a question of fact.
