

Insecticides Act, 1968

Section 36 - Power of Central Government to make rules.—

1) The Central Government may, after consultation with the Board and subject to the condition of previous publication, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act: Provided that consultation with the Board may be dispensed with if the Central Government is of opinion that circumstances have arisen which render it necessary to make rules without such consultation but in such a case the Board shall be consulted within six months of the making of the rules and the Central Government shall take into consideration any suggestions which the Board may make in relation to the amendment of the said rules. (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe (a) the method of packing and labelling; (b) the manner of registration of an insecticide; (c) the functions of the Board and of the Registration Committee and the travelling and other allowances payable to members of the Board, the Registration Committee and any Committee of the Board; (d) the places at which insecticides may be imported and prohibit their import at any other place; (e) the form of application for registration of an insecticide and the particulars relating thereto; (f) the fee payable in respect of registration; (g) the manner of appeal to the Central Government under section 10 and the fee payable therefore; (h) the form of application for the grant of licence and the particulars relating thereto; (i) the form of licence, the conditions attached thereto and the fee payable therefore; (j) the period for which a licence may be renewed and the fee for such renewal; (k) the circumstances in which a licence may be varied or amended under sub-section (2) of section 14;
