

Mines Act, 1952

Section 33 - Extra wages for overtime 3

a) [a] Substituted for sub-section (1), by the Mines (Amendment) Act, 1959 (62 of 1959), section 17 (w.e.f. 16-1-1960). [(1) Where in a mine a person works above ground for more than nine hours in any day, or works below ground for more than eight hours in any day or works for more than forty-eight hours in any week whether above ground or below round, he shall in respect of such overtime work be entitled to wages at the rate of twice his ordinary rate of wages, the period of overtime work being calculated on a daily basis, or weekly basis, whichever is more favourable to him.] 3 (b) [b] Substituted for sub-sections (2) and (3), the Mines (Amendment) Act, 1959 (62 of 1959), section 17 , (42 of 1983), section 19 (31-5-1984). [(2) Where any person employed in a mine is paid on piece-rate basis, the time-rate shall be taken as equivalent to the daily average of his full-time earnings for the days on which he actually worked during the week immediately preceding the week in which the overtime work has been done, exclusive of any overtime, and such time-rate shall be deemed to be he ordinary rate of wages of such person: Provided that if such person has not worked in the preceding week on the same or identical job, the time-rate shall be based on the average for the days he has worked in the same week excluding the overtime or on the daily average of his earnings in any preceding week, whichever is higher. (4) The Central Government may prescribe the registers to be maintained in a mine for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this section.