

Mines Act, 1952

Section 61A - Laying of regulations, rules and bye-laws before Parliament 3

a) [a] Inserted by Mines (Amendment) Act (42 of 1983), S. 35 (31-5-84). [Every regulation made under (section 57), every rule made under (section 58) and every bye-law made under (section 61) shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the regulation, rule or bye-law or both Houses agree that the regulation, rule or bye-law should not be made, the regulation, rule or bye-law shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that regulation, rule or bye-law as the case may be.]
