

Mines Act, 1952

Section 72C - Special provision for contravention of law with dangerous results

1) Whoever contravenes any provision of this Act or of any regulation, rule or bye-law or of any order made thereunder (other than an order made under sub-section (1 A) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) of (section 22) a [or under sub-section (2) of section 22A]) shall be punishable- (a) if such contravention results in loss of life, with imprisonment which may extend to two years, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both, or (b) if such contravention results in serious bodily injury, with imprisonment which may extend to one year, or with fine which may extend to three thousand rupees or with both; or (c) if such contravention otherwise causes injury or danger to persons employed in the mine or other persons in or about the mine with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both, 3 (a) [a] Inserted by Mines (Amendment) Act (42 of 1983), S. 39 (31-5-84). [Provided that in absence of special and adequate reasons to the contrary to be recorded in writing in the judgment of the Court, such fine, in the case of contravention referred to in clause (a), shall not be less than three thousand, rupees.] (2) Where a person having been convicted under this section is again convicted thereunder, he shall be punishable with double the punishment provided by sub-section (1). (3) Any Court imposing or confirming in appeal, revision or otherwise a sentence of fine passed under this section may, when passing judgment, order the whole or any part of the fine recovered to be paid as compensation to the person injured or, in the case of the death, to his legal representative: Provided that if the fine is imposed in a case which is subject to appeal, no such payment shall be made before the period allowed for presenting the appeal has elapsed, or, if an appeal has been presented, before the decision of the appeal.
