Seeds Act, 1966

Section 8 - CERTIFICATION AGENCY - The State Government or the Central Government, in consultation with the State Government, may, original clause 10).- The clause provides for the establishment of a certification agency by the State Government instead of appointment of licensing officers as proposed in the Bill. The Committee consider that power should be vested in the Central Government to establish, after consultation with the State Government, a certification agency in any State. Necessary provision for the purpose has been made in the clause." - J.C.R.
