Telegraph Act, 1885

Rule 83 - RULE 83 .

An inland telegram addressed to a registered abbreviated address for which service indications for delivery by telephone are registered (Rule 110) or addressed to a person by his telephone number (Rule 36) may be telephoned to the addressee. In other cases a telegram may, with the consent of the addressee, be delivered by telephone if this method of delivery is convenient to the telegraph office. Whenever delivery is made by telephone, a confirmatory copy of the telegram shall be sent to him by the first available post at the address given against the telephone number in the Telephone Directory: Provided that in cases where delivery of the confirmatory copy of a telegram is desired to be effected by a messenger and not by post an additional charge of twenty five Paise per confirmatory copy so delivered shall be payable by the addressee.
