The Indian Penal Code 1860

Section 6 - DEFINITIONS IN THE CODE TO BE UNDERSTOOD SUBJECT TO EXCEPTIONS

Throughout this Code every definition of an offence,

- a) The sections, in this Code, which contain definitions of offences, do not express that a child under seven years of age cannot commit such offences; but the definitions are to be understood subject to the general exception which provides that nothing shall be an offence which is done by a child under seven years of age.
- (b) A, a police officer, without warrant apprehends Z, who has committed murder. Here A is not guilty of the offence of wrongful confinement; for he was bound by law to apprehend Z, and therefore the case falls within the general exception which provides that "nothing is an offence which is done by a person who is bound by law to do it".
