

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/291723

Apprentices Act, 1961

Chapter 33 - Cognizance of offences

-No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder except on a complaint thereof in writing made by the Apprenticeship Adviser (Subs. by Act 4 of 1997.) [or the officer of the rank of Deputy Apprenticeship Adviser and above] within six months from the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.