

Administrators-general Act, 1963

Section 62 - Power of State Government to Make Rules

(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act, and for regulating the proceedings of the Administrator-General.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for--

- (a) the accounts to be kept by the Administrator-General and the audit and inspection thereof;
- (b) the safe custody, deposit and investment of assets and securities which come into the hands of the Administrator-General ;
- (c) the remittance of sums of money in the hands of the Administrator- General in cases in which such remittances are required ;
- (d) subject to the provisions of this Act, the fees to be paid under this Act and the collection and accounting for any such fees ;
- (e) the statements, schedules and other documents to be submitted to the State Government or to any other authority by the Administrator-General, and the publication thereof ;
- (f) the realization of the cost of preparing any such statements, schedules or other documents;
- (g) the manner in which and the person by whom the costs of and incidental to any audit under the provisions of this Act are to be determined and defrayed ;
- (h) the manner in which summonses issued under this Act are to be served and the payment of the expenses of any person summoned or examined under the provisions of this Act, and of any expenditure incidental to such examination; and
- (i) any other matter which is required to be, or may be, prescribed under this Act.

¹[(3) Every rule made by the State Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before the State Legislature.]

1. Inserted by the Administrators-General (Amendment) Act, 1983.
