Administrators-general Act, 1963

Section 63 - Laying of Rules Made by Central Government Before Parliament

Every rule made by the Central Government under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session for a total period of thirty days, which may be comprised in one session or ¹[in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid], both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

1. Substituted for "in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following", by the Administrators-General (Amendment) Act, 1983.
