Produce Cases Act, 1966

Section 22 - Rules to Be Laid Before Parliament

Every rule made under this Act shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in¹[two or more successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session immediately following the session] in which it is laid or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under the rule.

1. Substituted for the words "two successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid" by Cotton, Copra and Vegetable Oils Cases (Abolition) Act (4 of 1987), Section 9 (w.e.f. 21-3-87).
