

Fatal Accidents Act, 1855

Section 2 - Not More Than One Suit to Be Brought

Provided always that not more than one action or suit shall be brought for, and in respect of the same subject-matter of complaint¹[* * * * *]

Claim for loss to the estate may be added. --

Provided that in any such action or suit the executor, administrator or representative of the deceased may insert a claim for, and recover any pecuniary loss to the estate of the deceased occasioned by such wrongful act, neglect or default, which sum, when recovered, shall be deemed part of the assets of the estate of the deceased.

1. The words "and that every such action shall be brought within twelve calendar months after the death of such deceased person", repealed by Act 9 of 1871. For limitation, now the Limitation Act, 1963 (36 of 1963).
