Cess Act, 1880

Section 96 - Service of notices under this Part Every notice under this Part required to be served, except as otherwise expressly

1) by delivering the same to the person to whom it is directed, or, on failure of such service, by posting the same on some conspicuous part of the house in which the said person resides, or by delivering the said notice to any agent authorized to appear generally for the person to whom such notice is directed; or (2) by sending a registered letter containing such notice directed to the said person at his usual place of abode or to the place where he may be known to reside; or (3) by posting a copy of the notice at the mal-cutcherry of the estate or tenure to which the notice relates, or, if no such mal-cutcherry be found, on some conspicuous place on such estate or tenure: and, in the case of estates paying their annual revenue by four instalments, by delivering another copy thereof to the agent who shall have paid an instalment of revenue next after the preparation of such notice. In all cases where two or more persons are holders of an estate or tenure, service of notice under this clause shall be deemed to be good and sufficient service on each and all of such persons.
