

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/3037

Coroners Act, 1871

Section 26 - Power to Arrest and Commit for Trial

{ Subs. by Act 4 of 1908, section.9, for the original section. } The Coroner may also, where the verdict justifies him in so doing, issue his warrant for the apprehension of the person who is found to have caused the death of the deceased person, and send him forthwith to a Magistrate empowered to commit him for trial.]
