

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/498666

The Code on Wages

Section 11 - Where an employee does two or more classes of work to each of which a different two or more minimum rate of wages is applicable, the employer shall pay to such employee in respect of classes of work, the time respectively occupied in each such class of work, wages at not less than the minimum rate in force in respect of each such class. Minimum