Indian Trusts Act, 1882

Section 33 - Right to Indemnity from Gainer by Breach of Trust

A person other than a trustee who has gained an advantage from a breach of trust must indemnify the trustee to the extent or the amount actually received by such person under the breach; and where he is a beneficiary the trustee has a charge on his interest for such amount.

Nothing in this section shall be deemed to entitle a trustee to be indemnified who has, in committing the breach of trust, been guilty of fraud.
