

Source: sooperkanoon.com/act/577991

The Electricity Act 2003

Section 35 - The Appropriate Commission may, on an application by any licensee, by transmission order require any other licensee owning or operating intervening transmission facilities. facilities to provide the use of such facilities to the extent of surplus capacity available with such licensee. Provided that any dispute regarding the extent of surplus capacity available with the licensee, shall be adjudicated upon by the Appropriate Commission. Charges for