Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Nov-21-2012

Appellant : Prashant Kumar Gupta

Respondent : The State of Madhya Pradesh

Advocate for Pet/Ap. : Shri. Deepak Okhade

Judgement :

1 W.P.No.17902/2012 Prashant Kumar Gupta & Anot versus State of M.P.& ORS.21.11.2012 Heard Shri Deepak Okhade learned counsel for the petitioners on the question of admission and interim relief.

The petitioners have filed this petition praying for police protection on account of the fact that they have entered into an intercaste marriage.

It is, however, apparent from a perusal of the petition and the documents filed alongwith the same that there is no threat to the petitioners either from the respondent no.4 or anybody not have the petitioners filed any complaint in this regard before the police authorities.

In the circumstances, it is apparent that the petition has been filed by the petitioners only on apprehension without their being any substance in the same.

In view of the aforesaid, the petition filed by the petitioners is, accordingly, dismissed.

The petitioners as and when occasion arises, may approach the police authorities.

C.C as per rules.
