Prathavilal Vs. Union of India

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/1040621

Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Oct-29-2012

Appellant : Prathavilal

Respondent : Union of India

Advocate for Def. : Shri. Rajas Pohankar, Shri. J.K.Pillai

Advocate for Pet/Ap. : Shri. Devesh Khatri

Judgement :

W.P.No.9333/2008 29.10.2012 Shri Devesh Khatri, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Rajas Pohankar, learned counsel for respondents No.2 & 4.

Shri J.K.Pillai, learned counsel for respondent No.3.

In terms of the Division bench direction of this Court, it is necessary on the part of respondents to produce the relevant documents in original such as Form-B, the employees pension Scheme declaration Form, identity card and Form-V and relevant papers where the date of birth of the petitioner is declared.

Learned counsel for respondents No.2 and 4 informes that some of the records have been received by him, but Form-B has not been made available to him for which some more time is needed.

Learned counsel appearing for respondent No.3 informed that he has received the list of Provident Fund Account number from the employer recently and he would take about 15 days' time to collect the relevant documents to produce before this Court for verification.

Considering the aforesaid, time as prayed for is allowed.

Let the petition be listed in the week commencing 10.12.2012 for consideration.

By the aforesaid time, relevant documents be produced.

(K.K.Trivedi) Judge.

A.Praj.
