Decided On : Feb-06-2013

Appellant : Deepak Singh

Respondent : The State of Madhya Pradesh

Advocate for Def. : Shri. T.K.Khadka

Advocate for Pet/Ap. : Shri. A.J.Pawar

Judgement :

Writ Appeal No.907/2012 6.2.2013 Shri R.N.Singh, learned Senior counsel, with Shri A.J.Pawar, learned counsel for the appellant.

Shri Sanjay Dwivedi, learned Government Advocate, for respondent Nos.1 and 2/State.

Shri Rajendra Tiwari, learned Senior counsel, with Shri T.K.Khadka, learned counsel for respondent no.3.

Heard on admission.

This writ appeal is directed against the order dated 30.7.2012 passed by the learned Single Judge whereby he has dismissed the appellants Writ Petition No.11337/2012.

The appellant and respondent no.3 are holding the post of Patwari vide order dated 15.7.2012.

The appellant was transferred from Patwari Halka Waidhan-51 R.I.Circle Waidhan, District Singrauli to Patwari Halka Tiya in the same district and in his place respondent no.3 has been posted on transfer.

The appellant challenged the order dated 15.7.2012 on the ground that he has been dislodged mainly to adjust respondent no.3, who is son-in-law of local M.L.A.Kedar Nath Shukla.

The learned Single Judge, by the impugned order disagreed with the appellant and dismissed the writ petition.

The learned Single has given a specific finding that no material was placed to show that appellant has been transferred to accommodate respondent no.3 merely because the latter is son-in-law of local M.L.A.The learned Senior counsel for the appellant could not dislodge the said finding in the present appeal.

The order dated 30.7.2012 clearly states that the transfers of petitioner and respondent no.3 have been made on administrative grounds.

The order of the learned Single Judge is well founded and unassailable.

We find no good ground to interfere with it.

The appeal is accordingly dismissed summarily.
