Judgement :

31.7.2012 Shri G.S.Thakur, Advocate for the applicants.

Shri Chandrakant Mishra, GA for the State.

Admit.

Call for the case diary.

Heard on I.A.No.14886/2012, an application for grant of ad-interim anticipatory bail to the applicants.

The applicants apprehend their arrest in connection with Crime No.251/2012 registered at P.S.Hatta, District Damoh for the offence punishable under Sections 498-A/34 of the IPC.

Learned counsel for the applicants submits that applicants have been falsely implicated in the case.

Applicant No.1 is father-in-law, applicant No.2 is mother-in-law and applicant No.3 is married sister-in-law of complainants Kamini and Bhanu.

Applicant No.3 is residing separately, she has delivered a child recently.

The applicants are reputed citizens of the locality, in the event of arrest their reputation will be tarnished, therefore, they be released on ad-interim anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for State has opposed the application.

Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, I do not find it a fit case for grant of ad-interim anticipatory bail to applicant Nos.1 and 2, their application is dismissed.

On due consideration of the contention raised by the learned counsel for the parties, I am of the considered view that it is a fit case to grant ad-interim anticipatory bail to applicant No.3 Smt.

Radhabai, therefore, without commenting on the merits of the case, her application is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest, applicant No.3 Smt.

Radhabai shall be released on bail on her furnishing a personal bond in a sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rs.Thirty Thousand only) with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer/competent Court.

Applicant No.3 Smt.
