Heard on I.A.No.6258/2013, an application for grant of ad-interim anticipatory bail to the applicants.

The applicants apprehend their arrest in connection with Crime No.354/2012 registered at P.S.Timarni, District Harda for the offence punishable under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B of the IPC.

Learned counsel for the applicants has submitted that applicants have been falsely implicated in the case.

According to the prosecution, it is alleged against the applicants that they prepared forged document and filed an application for mutation before the revenue authorities.

The complainant filed a civil suit against the applicants.

After mutation, an appeal was also filed by the complainant before the SDM, which was dismissed.

Thus, the matter is purely of civil nature.

The applicants are reputed citizen of the locality, in the event of arrest their reputation will be tarnished, therefore, they be released on ad-interim anticipatory bail.

Learned counsel for State has opposed the application.

On due consideration of the contention raised by the learned counsel for the parties and overall facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the considered view that it is a fit case to grant ad-interim anticipatory bail to the applicants, therefore, without expressing any view on the merits of the case, I.A.No.6258/2013 is allowed and it is directed that in the event of arrest, the applicants shall be enlarged on bail on their furnishing a personal bond in a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rs.Twenty Five Thousand only) each with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the arresting officer.

The applicants are directed to join the investigation and fully co-operate with the investigating agency.

They shall further abide by the other conditions enumerated in sub-section (2) of Section 438 of Cr.P.C. This order shall remain in force till disposal of the main application under section 438 of Cr.P.C. List in the week commencing 15.4.2013.
