Sanjay Tambe Vs. the State of Madhya Pradesh

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/1049289

Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Oct-10-2012

Appellant : Sanjay Tambe

Respondent : The State of Madhya Pradesh

Advocate for Pet/Ap. : Shri. Deepak Awasthy

Judgement :

sanjay tambe versus state W.P.No.17308/2012 10-10-2012 Shri Deepak Awasthy, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Shri S.S.Bisen, learned Govt.

Adv.for the respondents on advance notice.

Petitioner is working as Sub Engineer in Janpad Panchayat, Ashta, District Sehore.

Vide order Annexure P/1 dated 13.7.2012 petitioner was transferred from Ashta, District Sehore to District Balaghat.

Challenge to the order of transfer was made by filing a writ petition before this Court being W.P.No.11519/2012 (s) and a Bench of this Court vide Annexure P/7 dated 7.8.2012 found that the transfer is not vitiated and no interference is called for.

Finding the petitioner can approach the higher authorities for redressal of his grievance, liberty was granted to the petitioner to submit a representation.

Representation submitted by the petitioner is also rejected and therefore, the petitioner is again before this Court.

As already indicated herein above in the earlier writ petition, this Court has already refused to interfere into the matter, not interference is sought for by contending that representation has not been properly decided, ailment of his wife is not taken note of and petitioner is not granted appropriate posting.

On the aforesaid grounds, no interference can be made by this Court as it is for the competent authority to consider the grievance of the petitioner and on such consideration representation having been rejected, no further indulgence is called for.

Petition is therefore dismissed.
