Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Jul-18-2013

Appellant : Ram Singh Gailot

Respondent : Phool Kunwar

Advocate for Def. : Shri. Rahul Choubey

Judgement :

F.A.No.155/97 18/7/2013: Even though Shri Dinesh Agrawal, learned counsel appears for appellant-husband but he pleads no instructions in the matter.

Shri Rahul Choubey, learned counsel for respondent- wife.

Challenge in this appeal is made to a judgment and decree dated 14.2.1997 passed by the FiRs.Additional District Judge, Sehore in Civil Suit No.6A/94 by which allowing an application filed by the respondent-wife, the marriage in question has been dissolved.

Records indicate that the decree for dissolution of marriage was passed on 14.2.97, there is no stay in the matter and as there is no instructions on behalf of the appellant to the counsel, prima facie we see that no interference into the matter not after a period of more than 15 years is called for and the decree has already attained finality and with the passage of time entire scenario would have been changed.

Keeping in view the aforesaid, finding no case for interference, this appeal is disposed of.

Original record be sent back.
