Rajesh Albert Vs. Akhilesh Albert

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/1050899

Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Nov-07-2012

Appellant : Rajesh Albert

Respondent : Akhilesh Albert

Advocate for Pet/Ap. : Shri. R.D.Hundikar

Judgement :

1 W.P.No.17735 o

07. 11.2012 Shri R.D.Hundikar, counsel for the petitioner.

He is heard on the question of admission.

The petitioner has filed this petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India for quashment of the order dated 29.9.12 Annex.P/1 passed by the Additional Collector, Damoh in Revenue Revision No.28/B-121/2011-12.

It appears that such revision was filed by the petitioner against some order passed by the subordinate revenue authority but neither the copy of the application filed before such authority nor the copy of the order passed by such authority which was the subject matter of the impugned revision, has been placed on record by the petitioner, hence he is directed to place such documents on record within 15 days.

Apart the above, it is apparent fact that the order of the Addl.

Collector has been challenged in this petition but such authority has not been impleaded as party in the present petition.

Hence, petitioner's counsel is directed to take appropriate steps to implead such authority as party or file appropriate application in this regard within 15 days.

Apart the above, petitioner's counsel is also directed to examine the matter keeping in view the provision of section 44 and 50 of the Madhya Pradesh Land Revenue Code in which against the order passed by the Collector, appeal /revision are provided then in view of such available alternate statutory forum how this petition could be entertained against the order Annex.P/1 Let this matter be listed for further consideration in the week commencing 10.12.2012.
