Appellant : Atul Singh

Respondent : The State of Madhya Pradesh

Judgement :

M.Cr.C.No :

14891. / 2012 Atul Singh versus State of Madhya Pradesh 05.02.2013.

Shri V.

Mahavar for the petitioner.

Shri S.S.Bisen, Government Advocate, for the State.

Heard.

Case diary perused.

Apprehending his arrest in Crime No.615/2011 registered at Police Station Kotwali, District Sidhi for offence under section 392 of the IPC, this application has been filed for grant of anticipatory bail.

Complainant Surendra Prasad Patel has lodged the FiRs.Information Report.It is stated that one Suraj Singh Baghel had taken him and certain persons came in a motor-cycle and looted the complainant of an amount of `42,000/- and `3,000/- from another co-passenger.

It seems that on the basis of statement of Suraj Singh Baghel, co-accused, and the memorandum given by him under section 27 of the Evidence Act, applicant is also found to be involved in the offence and he is likely to be arrested.

Apprehending his arrest, this application is filed for grant of anticipatory bail.

Even though learned counsel for the applicant tried to emphasize that on the basis of memorandum of the co-accused the applicant cannot be involved, but considering the nature of allegations made and the material available in the case diary, I see no reason to grant anticipatory bail to the applicant.

The application is accordingly dismissed.
