Ramesh Vs. the State of Madhya Pradesh

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/1051970

Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Feb-27-2013

Appellant : Ramesh

Respondent : The State of Madhya Pradesh

Judgement :

Writ Petition No ::

2996. / 2013 Ramesh versus State of Madhya Pradesh and others 27.02.2013.

Shri Yogendra Patel for the petitioner.

Shri Samdarshi Tiwari, Government Advocate, for the State on advance notice.

Against the order-dated 16.1.2012 - Annexure P/2, petitioner has a remedy of filing a writ petition before the Board of Revenue.

But, it seems that the petitioner could not file the revision within the statutory period of limitation and, therefore, has approached this Court.

Petitioner is a member belonging to the Scheduled Tribe community and keeping in view the rights of the petitioner, interest of justice requires that he should be granted permission to file the revision and the delay in filing the same should be condoned.

In view of the above, it is directed that in case petitioner files an application before the Board of Revenue against the order in question, within a period of 15 days from today, the Board of Revenue shall consider and decide the revision of the petitioner on merits and shall not dismiss it on the ground of delay.

With the aforesaid observation, the petition stands allowed and disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules today.
