Brahma Narayan Singh Vs. Man Singh

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/1053381

Court : Madhya Pradesh

Decided On : Apr-08-2013

Appellant : Brahma Narayan Singh

Respondent : Man Singh

Judgement :

W.P.No.5735/2013 08-04-2013 Shri Kishore Shrivastava, learned senior counsel with Shri S.R.Tamrakar, for the petitioner.

Shri Prashant Singh, learned Addl.

A.G.for the respondents No.14, 15 and 16.

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties.

We find that the respondents No.1 to 13 are not served, however, having regard to the circumstances of the case and the fact that we do not propose to pass any order adverse to the interest of the aforesaid respondents, we consider it appropriate to dispose of the matter at this stage.

Having heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties we find that the matter, namely, the confirmation and vacation of the ex parte order was directed to be heard by the Tribunal on 21st of March, 2013 and that a final order in that regard is yet to be passed.

For the same reason we consider it sufficient in the interest of justice to direct the Additional Registrar of the Cooperative Societies (Judicial) to consider the question of confirmation or vacation of the exparte relief and decide the same within a period of thirty days after receipt of the application for modification of the exparte order, after giving due opportunity to all the concerned parties.

As we are disposing of the appeal at the initial stage without notice to the private respondents, therefore, they are granted liberty to approach this Court for review etc.in case so required.

The petition is accordingly disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
