

Robln Paul Vs. the Official Liquidator

Robln Paul Vs. the Official Liquidator

SooperKanoon Citation : sooperkanoon.com/1059907

Court : Kolkata

Decided On : May-14-2012

Judge : Nadira Patherya

Appellant : Robln Paul

Respondent : The Official Liquidator

Judgement :

ORDER

SHEET CA No.293 of 2004 With CP No.324 of 2001 CA No.173 of 2008 CA No.314 of 2008 CA No.419 of 2006 IN THE HIGH COURT AT CALCUTTA Original Jurisdiction IN THE MATTER OF : THE NEW RED BANK TEA CO.PVT.LTD.And ROBIN PAUL Versus THE OFFICIAL LIQUIDATOR BEFORE: The Hon'ble JUSTICE PATHERYA Date :

14. h May, 2012.

Mr.Ariduddha Mitra for the petitioner.

Mr.Jasobanta Rakshit for PF Authority.

Mr.M.C.

Ghose for Official Liquidator.

Mr.Sondwip Mukherjee,Advocate/Special Officer appeaRs.The Court : By order dated 29th July, 2011 the Special Officer was directed to make payment of Rs.10 lakhs each to the Provident Fund authorities and Sales Tax authorities on an ad hoc basis.

As the order dated 29th July, 2011 was not communicated to the Special Officer the directives contained therein have not been carried out.

This day a copy of the said order has been made available to the Special Officer and the Special Officer is directed to implement the said order within the time stipulated therein.

It is made clear that the sum of Rs.10 lakhs each be paid to the statutory authorities, viz., Provident Fund authorities and Sales Tax authorities.

As a claim has been lodged by the United Bank of India on account of security guards with the Official Liquidator, let such claim be considered by the Official Liquidator and the adjudicated amount be placed before the Special Officer for payment.

At the time of adjudication, however, a notice be given to the Advocate-on-Record of the applicant.

As no disclaimer application has been filed by the landlord of the premises where the registered office of the company (in liquidation) is situate and sums of money have been paid to a large number of unsecured credit ORS.let the registered office of the company (in liquidation) be handed to the contributories.

Needless to mention the contributories will be entitled to utilise the said registered office under the Special Officer.

Report filed by the Special Officer be kept on record.

Matter to appear in the list three weeks after the Summer Vacation.

Special Officer, Official Liquidator and all parties to act on a photostat signed copy of this order on the usual undertakings.

( PATHERYA, J.) pa.

SooperKanoon - India's Premier Online Legal Search - sooperkanoon.com