FOLLOWING: W.P.C. No. 2803 of 2024 2

JUDGMENT

The petitioners had availed two loans from the 2nd respondent bank for various amounts in the year 2010. To secure the loan amount, immovable property having an extent of 12 cents was mortgaged. When default was committed, arbitration proceedings were initiated, and an award was obtained. Pursuant to the same, Exts.P1 to P3 have been issued, indicating the initiation of coercive proceedings to recover the amount. This has led the petitioners to approach this Court seeking to quash Exts.P1 and P2 auction notices and for issuance of directions to the respondents to permit the petitioners to settle the amount through manageable installments.

2. The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the 2nd respondent

Bank submits that the total outstanding as of 16.02.2024 due from the petitioner is about Rs.22,84,345/-. It is submitted that the loan was availed in the year 2010 and the tenure ended on 04.10.2020. However, it is submitted that the bank is willing to grant the petitioners an opportunity to clear the outstanding amount. However, he submits that not more than eight installments be granted.

3. Upon careful consideration of the submissions made by both parties, it is evident that the petitioners owe in excess of Rs.22.84 lakhs to W.P.C. No. 2803 of 2024 3 the 2nd respondent Bank. The respondents, fairly, have agreed to permit the petitioners to settle these debts through a limited number of installments. As a measure of last resort, I am inclined to issue directions to facilitate the petitioners in discharging their financial obligations to the 1st respondent. This approach is deemed necessary to provide a structured pathway for the petitioner to clear off their monetary liabilities in a manageable manner.

4. Resultantly, this writ petition is ordered, and the following directions are issued:

(i) The petitioners shall approach the 2nd

respondent with a request to inform them of the details of the outstanding amount together with interest and other charges due from them in respect of the loan account. If such a request is made within two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment, the 2nd respondent shall forthwith issue a statement in writing detailing the amounts.

(ii) On receipt of such a statement, the petitioners shall pay the amounts shown therein in fifteen (15) equal monthly installments commencing from 01.4.2024 and continue to pay the same on every successive W.P.C. No. 2803 of 2024 4 month thereafter until the entire loan is wiped off.

(iii) If the amounts are diligently paid in terms of the directions above, coercive proceedings initiated against them by the respondents for the realization of the amount shall be kept in abeyance.

(iv) It is made clear that if the petitioners commit default of any two installments, they will lose the benefit of this judgment, and the concerned respondents will be free to continue the recovery proceedings against them from the stage at which they presently stand and recover the entire amount along with interest and other charges.

(v) It is further made clear that no application for an extension of time will be entertained. sd/- RAJA VIJAYARAGHAVAN V
