----- Bail Appl.

ORDER

These are applications for anticipatory bail.

2. The petitioner in these cases is common. The petitioner is arrayed as an accused in Crime Nos.645/2023, Station, Kozhikode District.

3. The allegations against the petitioner are that the petitioner while working in the Apollo Jewellery situated at Vatakara, with an intention to deceive the defacto complainants, he obtained money towards an alleged deposit scheme being conducted by the aforesaid entity known as M/s. Apollo Gold Vatakara (P) Ltd., promising high returns/gold ornaments of appropriate value and thereby he along with other accused had

B.A.Nos.5910 of 2023 & Conn. cases 18 committed the offences alleged against them.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is only an employee of the aforesaid company. It is submitted that the petitioner was the floor manager (Retail Administrator) of the jewellery shop belonging to the aforesaid company. It is submitted that the petitioner was working only as per the directions issued by the Directors of the company, who are the other accused in these cases. It is submitted that apart from the above, the petitioner has no direct role in the acceptance of any deposit or the promising of high returns etc. It is submitted that no amount of money has been transferred to the account of the petitioner and all amounts were transferred directly to the account of the company. It is submitted that in such circumstances, the petitioner may be granted anticipatory bail subject to any condition that this Court may deem fit to impose.

5. The learned Public Prosecutor opposes the grant of bail. He submits that apart from the offences under Sections 406 and 420 of the Indian Penal Code, the provisions of the Banning of Unregulated Deposit Schemes Act (BUDS Act), 2019, have also been invoked. It is pointed out that there are several cases now registered against the petitioner and the other accused alleging

B.A.Nos.5910 of 2023 & Conn. cases 19 that they had duped various persons by promising high returns/gold ornaments of appropriate value. It is submitted that since the provisions of the BUDS Act have been incorporated, it may be necessary to identify the properties of the accused for the purposes of attachment etc. It is submitted that all the other accused (Directors of the company) have absconded and are believed to be abroad. It is submitted that if the petitioner is granted anticipatory bail, the same may not be conducive to a proper conclusion of the investigation in the cases registered against the petitioner and the other accused. It is submitted that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner may be absolutely essential to complete the investigation in a proper manner and also to identify the properties which are to be attached in proceedings under the BUDS Act.

6. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor, I am of the opinion that the petitioner can be granted anticipatory bail subject to conditions. Prima facie, it appears that the petitioner was only an employee of the company known as M/s. Apollo Gold Vatakara (P) Ltd. Apart from the allegation that the petitioner had involved himself actively in promoting the scheme run by the company, there appears to be no allegation at present that the petitioner had

B.A.Nos.5910 of 2023 & Conn. cases 20 actually collected money on his own account. While it is true that the nature of the allegation raised against the petitioner indicates that the full cooperation of the petitioner may be necessary to complete the investigation in a proper manner, the same can be ensured without custodial interrogation. It is settled by the law laid down in Sushila Agarwal v. State (NCT of Delhi) and Another; (2020) 5 SCC 1, that even while on anticipatory bail, the accused can be deemed to be in custody for the purposes of recovery etc.

7. In the result, these applications are allowed. It is directed that the petitioner shall be released on bail, in the event of arrest in Crime Nos.645/2023, 646/2023,

647/2023, 648/2023, to the following conditions:-

(i) Petitioner shall execute separate bonds in respect of each of the cases registered against him for sums of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand only) each with two solvent sureties each for the like sum to the satisfaction of the arresting officer;

(ii) Petitioner shall appear before the investigating officer in Crime Nos.645/2023, 646/2023, 647/2023, 648/2023, B.A.Nos.5910 of 2023 & Conn. cases 21

11.00 am on five consecutive days namely on 16-10-2023, 17-10-2023, 18-10-2023, 19-10-2023, 20-10-2023 and 21-10-2023 and thereafter whenever called upon to do so;

(iii) Petitioner shall not attempt to contact the de facto complainants or interfere with the investigation or to influence or intimidate any witness in Crime Nos.645/2023, 646/2023, District;

(iv) The petitioner shall surrender his passport before the jurisdictional Court. If the petitioner does not have a passport, he shall execute an affidavit to that effect and file the same before the jurisdictional court within seven days of release on bail;

(v) Petitioner shall not involve in any other crime while on bail. If any of the aforesaid conditions are violated, the Investigating officer in Crime Nos.645/2023, 646/2023, 647/2023, B.A.Nos.5910 of 2023 & Conn. cases 22 and 736/2023 of Badagara Police Station, Kozhikode District may file an application before the jurisdictional Court for cancellation of bail.
